Report—Fair, cool

---Quality Up!
---Price Down!

OUR announcement that there will be no increase in prices—this season—met with the most appreciative response from the men of Washington. Saturday was certainly a "Hummer"—a record-breaker—in big selling—It's a keen pleasure to know that our efforts are appreciated—and you can depend on it—Mr. Man—that we will always look after your interests.

Suits and Overcoats

$15.15

Worth $20 of Any Man's Money

It's the farsighted merchandising—"months-ahead" buying—to get the same standard qualities—that enables us to quote the same low prices—The fabrics—the styles—the elegance of finish—prove these Suits and Overcoats to be in the twenty-dollar class—no wonder they are selling fast at $15.15.

The same proportionate savings in our $20, $25, $28.75, $35 and $38.75 garments.

EIGHT-HOUR LEAGUE WILL BOOM WILSON

Democrats of District Working to Command Labor Vote.

"Hughes has thrown down the gauntlet of the eight-hour day legislation and Wilson has picked it up; from now on the issue in this campaign is the eight-hour law," said C. W. Darr, the principal speaker at the meeting of the Wilson Eight-hour League organizers, at Building and Trades Hall, Sixth and G streets northwest, last night.

The meeting was composed for the most part of delegates from the labor unions of Washington and Maryland. Walter Costello, the instigator of the Eight-hour League movement, as chairman, stated the purpose of the organization to be the banding together of all sympathizers of labor in the fight for short hours and to secure the re-election of the President.

Mr. Darr dwelt much on the boon to the country of the regional banking act and the currency bill.

In answer to the charge that the eight-hour legislation was forced, he stated that labor has always been obliged to force concessions and that otherwise a national calamity would have occurred. Samuel De Nedry, for thirty-three years prominent in labor organizations, followed Mr. Darr. His main argument was that the Wilson administration stood for labor's rights against the capitalist and that it was a question of masses against classes. He spoke of the eight-hour law as a safety-first measure.

An effort is being made to enroll the laboring men of near-by States in the Eight-hour League. John R. Riegles, of Seabrook, Md., will be the organizer in his locality, and Newton James, of Hyattsville, will bring together the men of that section.

TWO MEN HELD UP; ROBBED OF BILLS

Footpads in Northwest Section Being Sought by Police.

Two cases of hold-up were reported to the police last night. In both cases two colored men answering to similar descriptions succeeded in making away with $5 bills.

John Williams, 641 Navy place southeast, reported to the Second precinct that he had been accosted at Seventh and Q streets northwest by two colored men and asked to make change. While he was attempting to oblige them one of the hold-up men grabbed a $5 bill from his hand and both men made off.

At Fourth and K streets northwest, E. J. Jackson, of 409 K street, was held up by two colored men shortly after dark. Before he could summon assistance the two men had gone through his clothes and taken a $5 bill from him.

None of the hold-up men had been located at a late hour last night. The police have a good description of them and are making a thorough search for them.
